BUNNY'S TRAIL

Design icon Bunny Williams discusses her decorating philosophies and illustrious career and takes viewers on tours of her Manhattan apartment and Connecticut estate in a new Institute of Classical Architecture & Art documentary. Bunny Williams—Not a House but a Home is told in Williams's own words, making it feel like an intimate conversation with the Architectural Digest AD100 Hall of Fame winner. The documentary, part of the Design in Mind series, begins airing on PBS affiliates in April and is available online now at pbs.org.
