ICAA TRAVEL

ICAA Travel Revisited: Townley Hall, Ireland with Robert O'Byrne

ICAA Travel Revisited takes viewers back to some of the favorite destinations from past ICAA Travel Programs. In this second installment, Robert O'Byrne - otherwise known as The Irish Aesthete - presents a tour of Townley Hall in County Louth, Ireland.

Townley Hall was built in the early 1790s by a fascinating trio: the heir of the estate, Blayney Townley Balfour III; his sister, Anna Maria Townley Balfour; and the great Irish architect, Francis Johnston. Taking design cues from contemporaries like James Wyatt, and of course from ancient sources such as the Pantheon, Johnston and his discerning clients created an enduring example of restrained elegance that remains one of the finest examples of Georgian architecture in Ireland.

ICAA INFLUENCERS

ICAA Influencers: Bobby McAlpine

In this third episode of ICAA Influencers, architect Bobby McAlpine reflects on the designers and buildings that continue to inspire him. From Edwin Lutyens to Frank Lloyd Wright, from mid-century modernism to even a box of Crayola crayons, Bobby muses about his approach to the discipline of architectural design, and how he thinks about the legacy of his firm McALPINE. As he puts it, "Every time I begin a new project, what concerns me is not only solving the riddle that's in front of me, that it is creating a solution that will ride the test of time and will remain attractive to future generations."

WATCH NOW

ICAA Influencers is a new five-part series of interviews with today's top architects on the topic of legacy and how they were inspired and influenced by past design. Each episode reveals a remarkable variety of design inspirations that shaped one of the leading minds of classical architecture: Patrick Ahearn of Patrick Ahearn Architect, Tom Kligerman of Ike Kligerman Barkley, Peter Pennoyer of Peter Pennoyer Architects, Bobby McAlpine of McALPINE, and Jim Strickland of Historical Concepts.

CHRISTOPHER H. BROWNE DRAWING TOURS

The 2021 Christopher H. Browne Savannah Drawing Tour

Savannah, Georgia
September 30 - October 3, 2021

Don't miss your chance to join the first in-person Drawing Tour in a year and a half!

The 2021 Christopher H. Browne Savannah Drawing Tour provides an opportunity to study, through field drawing, the rich diversity of architecture and unique urbanism of Savannah, Georgia - a living laboratory of design, building, and planning from the 18th century to the present day. Each day is structured around studying representative examples of building types that form the fabric of Savannah, with a focus on their composition, detail, and contribution to the urbanism and landscape of the city.

Each year, the ICAA is also pleased to award four scholarships to drawing tour students or emerging professionals annually in the name of Mr. Browne, a long-time supporter and champion of classicism. Scholarship recipients will receive the moniker "Christopher H. Browne Scholars."

In addition, the ICAA is pleased to offer two scholarships for the Christopher H.

Browne Savannah Drawing Tour through the Dorothy LaPolla-Czarnecki Scholarship, sponsored by John LaPolla and LaPolla Designs. This scholarship is offered in honor of John's late mother Dorothy LaPolla-Czarnecki for her unwavering encouragement and promotion of education. John, his family, and company continue this legacy of support and mentorship of aspiring students and craft persons in education and the arts.

Additional scholarships for the Christopher H. Browne Savannah Drawing Tour are available thanks to the Southeast and Southern California Chapters of the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art.

The deadline to apply for all scholarships for the Christopher H. Browne Savannah Drawing Tour is Friday, August 6, 2021.

A Year at Clove Brook Farm - Gardening, Tending Flocks, Keeping Bees, Collecting Antiques, and Entertaining Friends with Christopher Spitzmiller

Wednesday, August 11
6:00 PM EDT / 3:00 PM PDT

Christopher Spitzmiller is known to his friends and Instagram fans as the ultimate weekend farmer, who raises his own handsome chickens, grows his own flowers, and puts up his own jam, cider, and honey. In this—his first book—he treats readers to a full year at Clove Brook Farm, his idyllic but always-active country retreat. Filled with tips on garden-planning, creating seasonal flower arrangements, and living with animals, A Year at Clove Brook Farm is a timely book as we are all focused making the most of our own homes and gardens—even if that’s only a row of herbs in a sunny urban window—and it is the the perfect inspiration for anyone enthralled by the fantasy of full-on farmstead living.

Please note: This program is free and open to ICAA Members only.

CHATSWORTH THROUGH TIME

Chatsworth Through Time:

Episodes 1 and 2 Screening

Thursday, August 26th
6:00 PM EDT / 3:00 PM PDT

The Institute of Classical Architecture & Art (ICAA) is proud to announce our partnership with Chatsworth House and the Duke of Devonshire for our six-episode series Chatsworth Through Time, exploring the history, architecture, landscape, and collections of Chatsworth House. Building on the success of our 2019 Summer Series at Sotheby’s, Treasures from Chatsworth, which featured lectures from renowned architectural historians, this new series explores the world of Chatsworth, with its own curators, Alice Martin, Head of the Devonshire Collection, and Dr. Alex Hodby, Senior Curator of Programme, as our guides.

Please join the ICAA for the premiere of Chatsworth Through Time, with the debut of the first two episodes of the series, “Episode One: The Tudor House” and “Episode Two: The Powerhouse” on August 26th, at 6:00 PM, Eastern time. The series features an introduction from the Duke of Devonshire, on-site footage, archival materials, and aerial photography of the site, as our guides delve into the history of the house, its construction, interiors, and collections. We are honored that Chatsworth has chosen the ICAA as partners to help make these videos accessible to a worldwide audience.

Please note: This program is free and open to ICAA Members only.
