ONLINE COURSES & LECTURES

Brooklyn Bridge Conversation with Kriss Roebling

On November 17th, 2020, the ICAA hosted an intimate conversation about one of New York City's great milestone achievements, in which NYC Committee Chair, Adrian Taylor, conversed with Kriss Roebling, great-great grandson of Washington and Emily Roebling, the builders of the Brooklyn Bridge. With his unique familial relationship to the Bridge, Kriss conveyed a very interesting perspective and a treasure-trove of stories, anecdotes and artifacts related to this great monument of design innovation and human ingenuity.

Kriss Roebling is a lifelong New Yorker and the great-great grandson of Washington and Emily Roebling, the builders of the Brooklyn Bridge, and has spoken publicly at numerous colleges, architectural organizations, cultural societies, consulates, and schools and has been featured in the New York Times, BBC Radio, The History Channel, and many other media outlets.

THE ARCHITECTURE OF PLACE

American Housing & Social Justice

This lecture, which took place on November 16th, 2020, explores how housing policy and the design of our cities intersect all aspects of our lives from the fabric of our society to the strength of our economy. The course looks at the history and lasting legacy of housing segregation in America, intended and unintended. Beyond the past and present, it includes a discussion of potential ideas for addressing these inequities, specifically the nationwide affordable housing crisis, so we might build a stronger future for all communities.

WATCH NOW

Perhaps now more than ever before, we are all aware of the built environment that surrounds us, and of the impacts it has on the health of individuals, communities, and the planet. The Architecture of Place, a collaborative series from the ICAA, INTBAU, and the Prince's Foundation, brought together the established and emerging voices working to create a better built future. You can find more information on the full series here.

The ICAA would like to thank The Benton Family Foundation for its generous support of this lecture series, along with series sponsor McCrery Architects.

Additional thanks to INTBAU's supporters for this series, Fairfax & Sammons, ADAM Architecture, and Size Group. Additional thanks to The Prince's Foundation's supporter, Mr. Paul Beirne.
