IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

In Your Neighborhood: Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Part I with Patrick Ahearn

Commonwealth Avenue bisects the historic Boston neighborhood of Back Bay, and connects the Boston Common and Public Garden to the rest of the "Emerald Necklace" network of public spaces. As architect Patrick Ahearn, FAIA describes it in the latest edition of In Your Neighborhood, the Avenue presents a journey of architectural styles that celebrates the best of urban living in a walkable city.

ONLINE COURSES & LECTURES

More Beautiful: All-American Decoration
with Mark D. Sikes

Hosted by the Southern California Chapter in Collaboration with the National Office

On May 19th, 2021, the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art (ICAA) was pleased to welcome interior designer Mark D. Sikes for a tour through his latest book, More Beautiful: All-American Decoration, as part of a collaborative lecture co-hosted by the National Office and the Southern California Chapter.

In this presentation, available to watch in full, Mark reveals his sources of long-time inspiration and shows a glimpse into his creative process. He shares his favorite rooms — all of which are light-filled and crisply patterned, chic yet comfortable, and just the way people want to live today. Finally, he offers a peek at what is new and upcoming from this esteemed design firm.

THE SUMMER STUDIO IN CLASSICAL ARCHITECTURE

The Summer Studio in Classical Architecture
Returns to New York City
by Michael Mesko, ICAA Education Chair

On June 14, the ICAA will welcome students from across the country to the seventh annual Summer Studio in Classical Architecture (SSCA). The four-week program, which takes place at the ICAA's headquarters and at iconic landmarks throughout New York City, introduces students pursuing careers in architecture and its allied fields to classical architecture as a living language.

Living with Architecture as Art with Peter May and Maureen Cassidy-Geiger, moderated by Mark Ferguson

TONIGHT, Tuesday, June 8th
6:00 PM EDT / 3:00 PM PDT

Free and open to ICAA Members only

One of the largest private collections of architectural drawings and related artifacts was quietly assembled over thirty years by American investor and philanthropist Peter May, a client of ICAA board members Bunny Williams and Mark Ferguson. The collection has now been published in a stunning two-volume catalogue with innovative texts by leading authorities.

Please join the ICAA on Tuesday, June 8 for a virtual conversation with Peter W. May, architecture buff and collector, and Maureen Cassidy-Geiger, curator of the New-York Historical Society exhibition, The Art of Architecture: Beaux-Arts Drawings from the Peter May Collection, and co-author of Living with Architecture as Art: The Peter W. May Collection Architectural Drawings, Models and Artefacts (2021). This lecture will be moderated by Mark Ferguson, founding partner, Ferguson & Shamamian Architects and Dean of the School of Architecture, Catholic University.

UPCOMING BUNNY MELLON CURRICULA LECTURES

Listening to Land:
Cultural Landscape Research in Contemporary Practice
with Thomas Woltz

Wednesday, June 23
6:00 PM EDT / 3:00 PM PDT

Landscape architect Thomas L. Woltz has forged a body of work that integrates the beauty and function of built forms with an understanding of cultural context and ecological processes. Please join the ICAA in collaboration with Classical American Homes Preservation Trust (CAHPT) for a virtual program on Wednesday, June 23, in which Thomas will discuss how a research-based design process can reveal and connect contemporary audiences to the underlying stories of the land in a lecture filmed at CAHPT's Edgewater site in Barrytown, New York.

Health, Safety, and Welfare in Traditional Design

Friday, June 11

12:00 PM EDT / 9:00 AM PDT

1 AIA CES Learning Unit|HSW and 1 credit towards the Certificate in Classical Architecture for each individual course session

The ICAA is excited to announce that the third Health, Safety, and Welfare in Traditional Design day will be held online on June 11, 2021.

This series of one-hour Continuing Education courses focuses on issues of health, safety, and welfare. Each course explores critical issues related to topics such as materials and durability, building codes, comfort, safety, health, sustainability, and human well-being, while addressing subjects specific to the practice of classical and traditional design. The series serves as a forum for topics related to sound design and best practices.

The current schedule of courses for the next upcoming Health, Safety, and Welfare in Traditional Design day includes:

- Mass Wall Masonry in a Modern Context with Austin Tunnell (Founder, Building Culture)
- Architectural Design Considerations for Limestone Cavity Wall Construction with Craig Williams (Principal, David M. Schwarz Architects)
- Efflorescence: Causes and Prevention with Foster Lyons (Foster Lyons Building Science, LLC)

Participants may enroll in any number of the courses; there is a discount for signing up for all three programs together.

ICAA TRAVEL PROGRAMS

The ICAA Is Resuming In-Person Travel Programs

The ICAA is pleased to announce the resumption of in-person travel programs in 2021, once again opening access to a world of design and architectural discovery and inspiration, and offering the opportunity to share unforgettable experiences with fellow classicists.

The first tour of 2021 to the Hudson River Valley is sold out, but the calendar is rapidly filling up with new dates and journeys. Visit classicist.org or contact development@classicist.org to learn more.

JULY 19-22, 2021

Great Country Houses of the Hudson River Valley SOLD OUT

This tour, arranged in conjunction with Classical Excursions, will cover three centuries of some of the region's finest architecture. Both sides of the Hudson River have a rich design legacy, and given the valley's proximity to New York City, it had been the recipient of substantial investment in the construction of stunning architectural treasures.

OCTOBER 16-21, 2021

The Capital of Moroccan Style: Marrakech

Immerse yourself in the art, architecture, riads, and romance of Marrakech on this special journey crafted and co-hosted by luxury travel planning company Indagare in partnership with the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art.

OCTOBER 19-22, 2021

Great Houses of the Berkshires

Join this tour arranged in collaboration with Classical Excursions to the Berkshires in Western Massachusetts, where idyllic villages like Stockbridge and Lenox are located near bucolic lakes and rolling hills, vied with Newport and Bar Harbor as a resort colony for the wealthy and socially prominent.

JUNE 11-18, 2022

Classicism in Copenhagen & Beyond

The ICAA is pleased to partner with Classical Excursions to present this exciting tour of Copenhagen, Denmark and beyond. This tour will open doors to some of the area's most outstanding examples of classical design, allowing participants to tour beautiful private residences and other architectural sites.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Contemporary Classical: Architecture, Urbanism and Craft in Florida and the Greater Caribbean

The ICAA Florida Chapter is pleased to announce the Call for Submissions for Contemporary Classical: Architecture, Urbanism and Craft in Florida and the Greater Caribbean, Volume I of the Chapter's new print publication series Classical Florida.

Contemporary Classical: Architecture, Urbanism and Craft in Florida and the Greater Caribbean will document and celebrate Florida's and the Caribbean's most accomplished classically-oriented work in architecture, urban planning, interior design, landscape architecture, craftsmanship and related arts and disciplines. The publication will be an attractive, large-format, rigorously documented and widely distributed overview that includes photography, plans, drawings and texts related to each featured project, and will also include a critical appraisal and an historical overview of classical work in Florida and the Greater Caribbean.

Participation in Contemporary Classical: Architecture, Urbanism and Craft in Florida and the Greater Caribbean is open to all ICAA members who have completed projects in Florida and the Greater Caribbean (individuals and firms may join the Florida Chapter of the ICAA at any time by visiting <https://www.classicist.org/membership>).

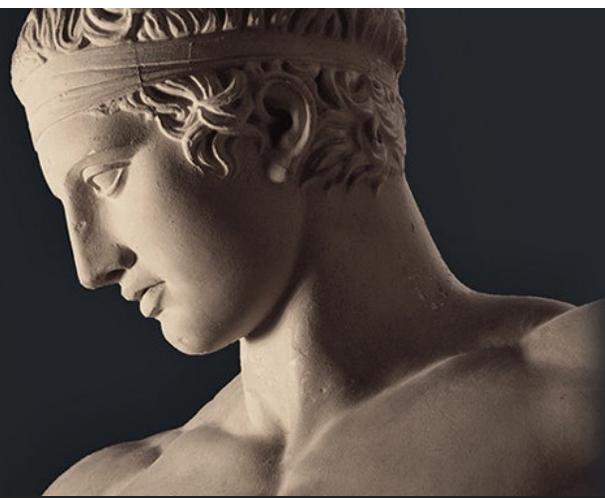

The deadline for submissions is June 15, 2021.
