Gabrielle Schadt is a fine artist, painter and illustrator. Having studied classical painting, drawing, and sculpture in Florence Italy, she gained knowledge of the method of the masters in the fine arts, and now shares those traditional techniques through her work.

She believes that art is a gift to both the creator and the person who receives it, and hopes that by her work, others may experience the infinite beauty of God who is the heart and purpose of man's existence.

Gabrielle sees that as one creates, their art is no longer just a creative process but becomes a beautiful act, voice, and a call to infinite beauty.
