

LARA SAUNDERS

@artlarasaunders

Lara Saunders was raised between Germany and New York City. Upon moving to the city, Lara was introduced to classical training at the Grand Central Atelier and began her studies at the academy at age twelve. In 2022, she completed the rigorous four-year Core Program at GCA and became an instructor upon graduating. She is a recipient of multiple grants and awards, including the Brian Yoder award. Her work focuses on the figure and portrait, but she frequently works in floral pieces as well. She lives and works in Brooklyn, NY.
